

LALGOLA COLLEGE

Department of Sanskrit

General Sanskrit

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSO)

B.A (PART-I)

❖ Sanskrit General

- Students progressing through B.A Programme from this institution mature themselves for a systemic and critical study of the thing that enhances their capability to answers and explain the difficult arguments that they face in next level of studies.
- This programme inspires the students from to actively participate in different cultural activities.
- The most significant outcome of the programme is that the students imbibe greater values of life when the pass out here.
- Student passing out to be employable.
- Students are expected to learn the higher Level of Sanskrit Literature and literature.
- Students are expected to learn the reading ability of manuscripts.
- Students are expected to learn the relation between other Indian literatures and Sanskrit.

Course Outcomes

❖ Sanskrit General

Year	Paper	Unit	Course Outcomes
B.A (PART-I)	PAPER-I	UNIT-I	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This course aims acquaint students with one most famous drama and one most famous prose of Sanskrit literature.• Familiarity with classical Sanskrit prose romance makes students aware of the literary tradition.• Students can learn Sanskrit Chanda.
		UNIT-II	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Types and example of Sandhi, karaka, stree - pratyay, etc. According to Paniniyam Grammar.• The students are able to do perfect sentence formation in Sanskrit.• They can understand the proper meaning of various text written in Sanskrit by their own.

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSO)

B.A (PART-II)

❖ Sanskrit General

- Students progressing through B.A Programme from this institution mature themselves for a systemic and critical study of the thing that enhances their capability to answers and explain the difficult arguments that they face in next level of studies.
- This programme inspires the students from to actively participate in different cultural activities.
- The most significant outcome of the programme is that the students imbibe greater values of life when the pass out here.
- Student passing out to be employable.
- Students are expected to learn the higher Level of Sanskrit Literature and literature.
- Students are expected to learn the reading ability of manuscripts.
- Students are expected to learn the relation between other Indian literatures and Sanskrit.

Course Outcomes

❖ Sanskrit General

Year	Paper	Unit	Course Outcomes
B.A(PART-II)	PAPER -II	UNIT-I	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This course aims to acquaint student with Kalida's best drama and Sanskrit metres.• Students aware of the works and dramatic skill of Kalidasa this Course is specially designed.• This course enables students to experience the aesthetic brilliance of Sanskrit drama and dramatic techniques.
		UNIT-II	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Student can learn about the origin and development of Mahakavya.• Students can also learn about the ethical and moral teaching of life through the works of Sanskrit poets.
	PAPER -III	UNIT-I	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Course on Vedic Sanskrit literature can help students learn about the history values of Sanskrit, as well as improve their language skills.• Students can learn about the importance of Sanskrit literature in various fields of society.• Students can learn to communicate about Vedic verse and their meaning

			and understand the fundamentals of Indian religious life. <ul style="list-style-type: none">•
		UNIT-II	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Students will be able to know the story about Manuśāmhita, Chapter VII (Verse 1-100 only).• Students will be able to explore near and new ideas through this course.

Programme Specific Outcomes (PSO)

B.A (PART-III)

❖ Sanskrit General

- Students progressing through B.A Programme from this institution mature themselves for a systemic and critical study of the thing that enhances their capability to answers and explain the difficult arguments that they face in next level of studies.
- This programme inspires the students from to actively participate in different cultural activities.
- The most significant outcome of the programme is that the students imbibe greater values of life when the pass out here.
- Student passing out to be employable.
- Students are expected to learn the higher Level of Sanskrit Literature and literature.
- Students are expected to learn the reading ability of manuscripts.
- Students are expected to learn the relation between other Indian literatures and Sanskrit.

Course Outcomes

❖ Sanskrit General

Year	Paper	Unit	Course Outcomes
B.A(PART-III)	PAPER-IV	UNIT-I	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• At the end of this course, student will be able to develop on understanding of the Rig-Veda and they will learn to implement the teaching of the Rig-Veda in real life situation.• Students can be applied to overcome problems in real life like management of stress, control over mind, ethical decision making, and leadership skill etc.
		UNIT-I	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Sahityadarpana is the earliest rhetoric literature which give us the main concept of aesthetics like Concept Rasa, Alamkara of Nataka Characterise feature of the heroes and considering Rasa as dwarf image of Bramhaswada,• This course aims to get students acquaint with origin and development of stage in different ages.